Norma Janice Shutt

NOV 10, 1946 - JAN 31, 2022

Norma Janice Shutt of Waldorf MD, passed away peacefully in her sleep on 31 January, 2022. She fought a hard battle with a form of leukemia that was incurable. Jan is survived by her loving husband of 36 years, Bandy B. Shutt, Step mother Phyllis Costa of Aldie Virginia , sisters Beverley Stafford of Unionville, VA, Jeannie Gibbs of Charlotte Hall MD, , Joan Huntington of Manassas, VA and Judi Hamilton of Holiday FL. Two step son's John Shutt of San Diego, CA and Emil and Susan Shutt of Westminster MD. Two step brothes, Gary Gibbs of Ellicott City, MD and Douglas Gibbs of Mechanisville, MD. Those left behind to also cherish her memory include her two grandchildren, Leah and Grayson Shutt, who were the love of her life and several nieces and nephews. Jan was born in Washington, DC and worked as an accountant for the federal government until she retired in 2004. She enjoyed traveling, playing bingo with a friend of 50 plus years and loved life in general. She will be missed by her family and friends as she meets her eternal father in Heaven. She was proceded in death by her father, Norman F. Gibbs, Sr, Her mother Vera Mae Dorman and brother Norman F. Gibbs Jr.

In lieu of flowers, please kindly make a contribution to St. Jude Children's Research Hospital at 501 St. Jude Place Memphis, TN 38105
