PETER CHRISTIAN LUND

FEB 14, 1931 - NOV 24, 2025

On November 24, 2025, Peter Christian Lund, 94, of Waldorf, MD, passed away peacefully at home. Peter was born in Takoma Park, MD, on February 14, 1931, to the late Axel Peter Lund and Mary Evelyn (Marquis) Lund, and raised in Clinton, Maryland. He married the former Betty Louise Snyder of Clinton, Maryland, and raised three children there.

Peter was a Korean War Era Veteran, honorably serving in the US Navy as a “SeaBee”, an electrician in the construction battalion serving in foreign ports in Puerto Rico, Morocco, and Cuba. Later in life, he returned to federal service as a power plant electrician at the Pentagon heating plant. He is most well-known in Southern Maryland as a long-time small businessman throughout his lifetime, owning a Gulf service station in Clinton, a recreational vehicle dealership in Clinton, a truck cap business in Brandywine, and as a farmer’s market vendor selling fruits, vegetables, and flowers in Northern Virginia.

Peter was personable, kind, and generous, and always enjoyed sharing a joke and telling a story. He was devoted to his immediate and extended family and enjoyed spending time with a wide cadre of friends, especially roaming around his favorite places in Southern Maryland. He was an avid gardener, loyal baseball fan, and history buff, with his favorite topics being the Civil War, the Old West, Southern Maryland history, and genealogy. He was also very active in the American Legion most of his adult life, considering them his “second family”.

Peter is survived by his daughter (Anita) Louise Lund, grandsons Peter Arlan Kirk (Fay Reed) and Matthew Christian Lund (Julie Lund), and great-grandsons David Christian Lund and Caleb Christian Lund. Louise Lund also has a stepdaughter, Kelly Kloehn (Jason Kloehn), and grandsons Brock Cutler and Brayden Cutler. He is also survived by his niece, Susan Queen (Jeff Morrill), and nephew James Queen (Kay Budner), as well as many cherished cousins.
